AFRICA SOUTH EAST ASIA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
WELCOMES FIRST MALAYSIAN MEMBER – MMC
CORPORATION BERHAD (MMC)

Singapore, 30 October 2015 - The Africa South East Asia Chamber of Commerce (ASEACC), headquartered in Singapore, announced today that MMC Corporation Berhad (MMC), a leading utilities and infrastructure group based in Malaysia, will be its latest addition of ASEACC's growing membership to 13 established corporations across the two continents.

Mr. Teo Siong Seng, Co-Chairman (South East Asia) of ASEACC, commented, "I welcome MMC as ASEACC's first corporate member from Malaysia. This is another milestone for ASEACC's effort in strengthening the trade and investment ties between Africa and Southeast Asia. I am confident that the involvement of MMC will bring immense value to ASEACC."

Dato' Sri Che Khalib Mohamad Noh, Group Managing Director of MMC added, "MMC is privileged to be associated with ASEACC which has a range of dynamic cross-border business opportunity between Africa and ASEAN. Our presence as a key player in Malaysia will add value to the ASEACC network and activities."

The participation of MMC enlarges ASEACC's geographical coverage to include Malaysia, the largest source country for investments to Sub-Saharan Africa from Southeast Asia, according to proprietary research from ASEACC. It also expands ASEACC's capacity to facilitate information exchange and business cooperation among its members across industries, including energy, finance, commodities, agriculture, water, infrastructure, transportation and logistics.
